1.0 PREAMBLE

1.1 Introduction

The Family and Heritage Studies syllabus is in two parts which cover the Infant and Junior school levels in primary education. The syllabus covers the social history of the people of Zimbabwe local cultures, cultural interdependence, heritage values and religious practices.

The focus of the syllabus is on facilitating the learner to become a responsible member of his or her local family and of Zimbabwe. It has a thrust on Zimbabwean identity, norms, values through the inclusion of aspects of heritage Studies; thus upholding the spirit of Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu (societal norms and values). It is envisaged that the syllabus will produce learners who are patriotic, diligent and prepared for diverse vocation and creative businesses.

1.2 Rationale

The Family and Heritage Studies embraces the Zimbabwean constitution, patriotism, national identity, national symbols and factors of production such as land, capital, labour and enterprise. It also encompasses the history, traditions and social qualities which are considered an important part of Zimbabwe's image. The Family and Heritage Studies instils in the learner a preservation ethic and enhances responsiveness to threats on the heritage. The family and Heritage Studies moulds the human character and is the foundation of Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu. It develops a spirit of national consciousness and patriotism through interest and involvement in national affairs. It also develops in learner skills of critical thinking, problem solving, leadership and self-management skills, Information and Communication Technology (ICT) and resources management leading to social and economic development.

1.3 Summary of Content

The Family and Heritage Studies syllabus' main thrust is upholding and sustaining:

- Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu (societal norms and values)
- Family, relationships and preservation of our national heritage
- Collaboration with others to improve the learners' society
- Patriotism

It also instils problem solving, critical thinking, leadership, communication, enterprise and technological skills

1.4 Assumptions

It is assumed that the learners:

- belong to a social family
- interact with their peers
- identify some national symbols and some heritage sites
- understand and accept their cultural diversity
- can communicate and think logically
- appreciate the relevance of their learning
- engage in project work, cooperative work and self-assessment activities

1.5 Cross - Cutting Themes

The following cross - cutting or emerging issues help the learner to acquire competencies for lifelong learning.

- Gender equality
- Family unity
- Child Protection from abuse and diseases such as AIDS
- Heritage Studies
- Environmental Issues
- Financial literacy
- Disaster Risk Management
- Children's Rights and Responsibilities

2.0 PRESENTATION OF THE SYLLABUS

- 2.1 The Family and Heritage Studies Syllabus is presented in two documents as follows:
  - Infant (ECD to Grade 2)
  - Junior (Grade 3 –7)
- 2.2 The two documents carry the same information from the Preamble up to the Scope and Sequence Chart
- 2.3 All Grades have the same topics that are developmental in nature.

3.0 AIMS

The aims of the syllabus are to enable the learner to:

- 3.1 appreciate and love Zimbabwe and its Chimurenga/Umvukela Liberation war heroes and heroines
- 3.2 develop an appreciation of national heritage and identity
- 3.3 appreciate the significance of national events, symbols and heritage
- 3.4 understand and appreciate Zimbabwe's pre-colonial, colonial and post-colonial history
- 3.5 develop an understanding of Zimbabwean spiritual values and beliefs, cultural practices and usage of artefacts
- 3.6 develop a spirit of national consciousness and patriotism through involvement in national functions
- 3.7 inculcate and sustain Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu in learners as they interact with family, community and society at large
- 3.8 appreciate the value and dignity of work, recreation and the need to participate in national development
- 3.9 inculcate in learners an appreciation of sovereignty, governance and moral value systems
- 3.10 appreciate the need for equal opportunities for all and sensitivity to the needs of the disadvantaged and vulnerable groups
- 3.11 develop an understanding of Zimbabwean marriage, inheritance systems and the laws and regulations governing them

4.0 SYLLABUS OBJECTIVES

By the end of The Family and Heritage Studies Infant (Early Childhood Development - Grade2) Syllabus, learners should be able to:

- 4.1. identify with national symbols such as National Flag, National School Pledge, Anthem, Monuments and Heritage sites
- 4.2. explain the significance of public holidays and other national events
- 4.3. demonstrate ways of showing respect for self and others
- 4.4. exhibit norms, values and appropriate responsible behaviour
- 4.5. differentiate between new and old means of transport, Information and Communication Technology (ICT)
- 4.6. explain how modes of transport and ICT facilitate communication among people and countries
- 4.7. justify the importance of work and leisure
- 4.8. explain key events and importance of the First and Second Chimurenga/Umvukela liberation struggle
- 4.9. compare the practices of their own community culture and that of others
- 4.10. identify appropriate shelter for humans and animals
- 4.11. explain the need of equal opportunities for all citizens of Zimbabwe
- 4.12. identify the global environmental issues that affect livelihoods
- 4.13. describe the production and marketing of goods and services

5.0 METHODOLOGY AND TIME ALLOCATION

A spiral approach is adopted, beginning with the learner's immediate environment, broadening to an exploration of his/her wider community and finally extending to the wider world. Learners need to develop appropriate value systems through participating in planned activities. Effective teaching and learning in The Family and Heritage Studies depends upon the use of participatory methods. These include the following:

5.1 Methodology

- (a) discussion
- (b) drama, role-play and simulation
- (c) song and dance
- (d) educational tours
- (e) case studies
- (f) puppetry
- (g) gallery walk
- (h) research

Family and Heritage Studies Primary School

- (i) futures wheel
- (j) miming
- (k) interactive e-learning methods
- (l) group work
- (m) question and answer

5.2 Time Allocation

For adequate coverage of the syllabus, the following allocation is advised.

ECD : 2 periods of 20 minutes per week
 Grade 1 and 2 : 2 periods of 20 minutes per week
 Grade 3 to 7 : 4 periods of 30 minutes per week

For the successful implementation of the Heritage-Social Studies Syllabus the following activities are recommended:

- Educational tours – at least one per term
- School Annual Science and Arts Festival (SASSAF) – 1 day for Infant and 3 days for Junior

NOTE: These events shall be organised at school, district, provincial and national levels.

9.0 ASSESSMENT

The syllabus scheme of assessment is grounded on the principle of inclusivity. Arrangements, accommodations and modifications must be visible in both continuous and summative assessment to enable candidates with special needs to also access assessments.

9.1 Assessment Objectives

By the end of the Family and Heritage Studies Primary School Level, learners should be able to:

- identify with national symbols such as National Flag, National School Pledge, National Anthem, Monuments and Heritage sites
- explain the significance of public holidays and other national events
- demonstrate ways of showing respect for self and others
- discuss norms, values and appropriate responsible behaviour
- differentiate between new and old means of transport, Information and Communication Technology (ICT)
- indicate how modes of transport and ICT facilitate communication among people and countries
- justify the importance of work and leisure
- explain key historical events in the family and local community
- compare the practices of their own community culture and that of others
- identify appropriate shelter for humans and animals
- explain the need of equal opportunities for all citizens of Zimbabwe
- identify the global environmental issues that affect livelihoods
- describe the production and marketing of goods and services

9.2 Scheme of Assessment

Family and Heritage Studies will be assessed through continuous assessment at Infant Level (ECD - Grade 2)

9.2.1 Continuous Assessment

Continuous assessment shall involve projects, written tests, assignments and practicals as indicated in the assessment model below.

NOTE: A profile system has to be developed for every child to capture those attributes that cannot be measured such as the soft skills. A folio comprises projects, written tests, assignments and practicals collated termly at ECD to Grade 2. Observation schedules, checklists, tests and projects tasks are to be set at school, cluster, district and national levels.
